Ekaterinburg's banking system complies with most international standards. Credit/debit cards are commonly used for transactions. However, cash is generally preferred in retail, small trading and catering points and taxis.

You can pay with your credit card in the majority of big shops, cafes, grocery stores.

The most abundant ATMs are those belonging to the Sberbank. They are painted in green color.

If you want to change money there are a few bank branches near your dorm.

USEFUL INFORMATION/Mobile communications

Only GSM cellular networks are used in Russia. We suggest you to buy a local SIM-card shortly after arrival.

Ekaterinburg on the map of Russia

Ekaterinburg is one of the largest cities of the Russian Federation. It is an administrative capital of the Sverdlovsk Region and the Ural Federal District. Nowadays the city is an important centre of industry, transport, finance, science and culture.

General information. The city was founded in 1723 and is situated in the heart of the Eurasian continent, on the border of Europe and Asia and in the middle of the Ural Mountain Range. Geographical coordinates of the city are 56° 51' North latitude and 60° 36' East longitude. It is located on the eastern slope of the Ural Mountains along the Iset River (the tributary of the Tobol River).

Total area of Ekaterinburg is 491 square kilometers.

The city is at 1 667 kilometers' distance away from Moscow and at 7 635 kilometers' distance away from Vladivostok. The time zone of Ekaterinburg is UTC+6 (two hours ahead of Moscow and six hours ahead of Greenwich). A flight from Moscow to Ekaterinburg takes two hours, while a train trip takes 25 hours.

Population. For January, 2019, the population of the Ural capital is 1 484 456 people.

Climate. The city features a temperate continental climate with characteristic weather instability with brightly expressed seasons. Average temperature in January is -16°C, in July - +18°C. The Ural Mountains could not be called very high, nevertheless they block the way to air masses coming from the West (from the European part of the country). Due to its location the city is not protected from the arctic air and considerably cool air from the West Siberian Plain. However, warm air masses come here unhindered from the South. That is why both sharp temperature changes and weather anomalies are typical in Ekaterinburg. Weather can change from severe frosts to thaws in winter and from extreme heat to cold weather and rains in summer.

The city and its outskirts have a lot of tourist attractions. There are over 600 monuments of history and culture in the city, 43 of them are of federal importance. In general, the city retained a large number of architectural monuments of the 19th century built in the classical style, as well as buildings in the style of constructivism of 1920s.

The city has about 50 different museums. The oldest museums are:

Sverdlovsk Regional Museum of Local Lore (Malyshev Street, 46),

Ekaterinburg Museum of Fine Arts (Weiner Street, 11, and Voevodin Street, 5),

Ural Geological Museum (Kuibyshev Street, 39),

United Museum of Writers of the Urals (Tolmachev Street, 41),

Sverdlovsk Regional Fire-Technical Exhibition (Karl Liebknecht Street, 8),

Military History Museum (Pervomayskaya Street, 27).

Ekaterinburg theaters:

State Academic Opera and Ballet Theater,

Academic Theater of Musical Comedy,

Academic Drama Theater,

“Kolyada-Theater”,

Theater for Young People,

Puppet Theater,

“Provincial dances” theater and others.

The Sverdlovsk Film Studio, opened in 1943, is the only studio in Russia outside Moscow and St. Petersburg making not only documentary, but also feature movies. In total, more than 200 feature films, 100 animated films, and 1500 documentaries were filmed here. In 2005, a mockumentary “First on the Moon” won the Venice Film Festival prize.

Sverdlovsk State Philharmonic Society is one of the best Russian philharmonic with a 700 seats concert hall and an organ.

Yekaterinburg Zoo, located within one block in the city center (an area of 2.5 hectares), has a rich collection consisting of more than 700 animals.

The Central Park of Culture and Rest named after Mayakovsky is the main city park, a popular place for holding mass events. The park has a variety of rides, a summer theater, a musical fountain, a children's railway. heat to cold weather and rains in summer. Yekaterinburg State Circus named after V.I. Filatov is an entertainment facility with 2,600 seats offering a new circus program every year.

Aqua Gallery is one of the largest in Russia exhibition of exotic fish. There are more than 40 aquariums, a pond with a sight glass and the first underwater tunnel in the Urals.

Keyboard Monument is an outdoor sculpture featuring the QWERTY/JCUKEN keyboard. The landmark depicts Man IBM PC compatible Cyrillic computer keyboard at 30:1 with 104 concrete keys. Each regular key weighs 180 pounds, while the space bar alone weighs 1,000 pounds. Unofficially it's the biggest Keyboard in the world.

In 2011 according to the results of internet voting this monument is one of the top 10 Ekaterinburg sights. Ekaterinburg Opera and Ballet Theatre is one of the four federal musical theatres in Russia. The strategy of Ural Opera is while performing the most significant classical works, to introduce the audience to the new compositions and names of composers, directors, artists on a regular basis.

Border between Europe and Asia is one of the features of the Ural area. Our region is unique geographically, it is simultaneously in two parts of the world Europe and Asia, settling down at the same time on one continent.

Aqua park Limpopo was opened in 2005. The temperature here is always +28 +30 degrees. There are a lot of pools, waterslides of different levels, spa zone etc. Visiting Limpopo is a perfect way to relax and spend time extremely amazing.

The “Visotsky” observation deck – here you meet An open viewing platform on the 52nd floor – at an altitude of 186 meters. You can see up to a distance of 25 km, the historical center of Yekaterinburg, the Verkh-Isetsky pond, the Uktusky mountains, etc. It's a perfect place to escape from daily routine and get unique emotions.

Botanic garden Uro RAN is a real green oasis in the center of Ekaterinburg. Here you can immerse into the atmosphere of exotic plants and flowers, enjoy the beauty of Russian nature.

Ekaterinburg is considered as a capital of street-art. International street-art festival «Stenografia» is an annual event of the first July weekend in Ekaterinburg. During 10 years of this festival there were a lot of street-art experiments in Ekaterinburg: robo-printer painted a mural on the sketch of the neuronet, the fence made the sounds from Rakhmaninov symphonies, etc. Now Ekaterinburg is a lab, ready for experiments and breaking the laws of space and time.

Glavny Prospekt International Arts Center

Glavny Prospekt was constructed around the Refinery Plant, an architectural monument erected in 1916. The goal of the International Art Centre is to create a dialog between different cultural and scholarly realms, in addition to working with and popularizing the city's history. Currently the following exhibitions and halls are on permanent display in the art space of the Glavny Prospekt International Art Centre: a POP ART exhibit showcasing the works of artists such as Andy Warhol and Roy Lichtenstein.

The beatles monument

This monument to the Beatles in the city of Yekaterinburg in central Russia may seem out of place, but they were so popular in the underground music scene of the USSR, and their cultural impact so great, the monument — comprised of a wall sculpture and accompanying mural — seems right where it should be. If you get the tourist map of Yekaterinburg this will be on the Red line of tourist sites. The Beatles monument is at a lower elevation than Gorkogo street so look toward the river.
